We will be participating in the New Jersey Business and Industry Association's Basic Skills Workforce Training Program funded by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) and understand that this instructional program will be managed and delivered under the supervision of the New Jersey Community College Workforce Consortium (Consortium) through a local community college.

It is further understood and agreed that our company will comply with the grant's requirement of social security numbers and payment of $140.00 to the New Jersey Community College Workforce Consortium if the registered employee fails to show for class without prior notice to the college.
